From Irondequoit to Quantico: A Journey of Leadership and Learning

By Jessica Franco

After nine weeks of intensive training at the FBI National Academy in Quantico, Virginia, I'm one week away from officially being a FBI NA graduate of Session 296!

This program brought together law enforcement professionals from around the world to strengthen leadership, wellness, and community engagement skills. The coursework and collaboration were challenging, rewarding.

“This experience reminded me that leadership isn’t just about rank – it’s about influence, integrity, and the commitment to serve others better every single day.”

The lessons I've learned and the connections I've made will directly benefit the Irondequoit Police Department and the community we serve. By applying new strategies in officer wellness, leadership, and community partnerships, we'll continue building a stronger, safer Irondequoit.

A huge thank you to my family, and colleagues for their incredible support throughout this journey. I'm honored to bring this experience home and put it to work.

RECIPE CORNER

Italian Almond Ricotta Cookies

<https://thisitaliankitchen.com/italian-almond-ricotta-cookies/>

Ingredients

- 2 cups all purpose flour
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon salt
- 1 cup sugar
- $\frac{1}{2}$ cup butter, softened (one stick)
- 1 cup ricotta cheese
- 1 large egg
- 1 teaspoon almond extract

Almond Glaze

- 1 cup powdered sugar
- 2 tablespoons milk
- $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon almond extract
- sliced almonds for decorating (optional)

Instructions

1. Line a baking pan with a baking mat or parchment paper; set aside.
2. In a medium bowl, whisk together the flour, baking powder, and salt; set aside.
3. In a large bowl, use an electric mixer on medium/high to cream together the sugar and butter, until mixture is light and fluffy, about 2 minutes. Beat in the ricotta, egg, and one teaspoon of almond extract, and mix until combined. Add in the flour mixture and mix until just combined.
4. Cover the cookie dough and chill in the refrigerator for at least 2 hours.
5. Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Remove cookie dough from refrigerator and use a cookie scoop to measure out about a tablespoon of batter and roll into a ball. Place on prepared baking sheets leaving about 2 inches between cookie balls.
6. Bake for 12-14 minutes or until the bottom of the cookie starts to brown slightly. Note that the cookies will not change color much. Cool in pan for 5 minutes before removing to wire rack to cool completely.
7. To make the glaze, in a small bowl whisk together the powdered sugar, milk, and $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon of almond extract. Hold the cooled cookie upside down and dip the top of the cookie in the glaze. Return to the wire rack to dry completely. Sprinkle with sliced almonds if desired.
